Bucharest, Romania

Feb. 9, 2017

Dear Dr. Duhaneanu,

On behalf of Kennesaw State University and the Division of Global Affairs, it is my great pleasure to inform you that you have been selected to receive the Kennesaw State University Distinguished International Community Partner Award in recognition of your enduring collaboration and partnership with Kennesaw State University as Rector of ASEBUS and your tremendous contributions to our educational mission and the Coles College of Business. As one of Kennesaw State University's longest and most enduring international partners, we are pleased to recognize your important support for our students, faculty and institutional mission of internationalization for more than 15 years.

The Distinguished International Community Partner Award is bestowed in honor of "a local or international community member who has demonstrated outstanding achievement in and commitment to international outreach and engagement through a project or initiative that has realized sustained impact within our local and global community. The recipient will have demonstrated outstanding effectiveness in international outreach and engagement and should serve as a compelling example of international community engagement to current Kennesaw State University students, faculty, and alumni."

As the recipient of the Distinguished International Community Partner Award, Kennesaw State University is pleased to invite you to attend the formal presentation ceremony for the Award during our International Achievement Awards Banquet at 6:00pm on April 26, 2017 at the Marietta Country Club in Marietta, Georgia. During the Awards Banquet Ceremony, you will be presented with a sculpted trophy in honor of your achievement. We are pleased to offer you complimentary economy class airfare, hotel accommodations and transportation associated with your travel to Atlanta for this event.

At your earliest convenience, we would request the pleasure of your formal acceptance of the Community Partner Award and confirmation of your intent to attend the International Achievement Awards Banquet on April 26, 2017 in Marietta, Georgia.

Congratulations on your selection for this momentous award and recognition of your international contributions to KSU and our community! We look forward to celebrating your accomplishments on April 26. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me directly. I look forward to receiving your response.

Sincerely,

Lance R. Askildson, Ph.D.
Vice-Provost & Chief International Officer
